concert de l'Avent

An illustration of the Nativity scene. The Virgin Mary, wearing a blue mantle over a pink dress, cradles the infant Jesus in her arms. The baby is wrapped in white swaddling clothes and has a halo. To the left, a white lamb stands. In the center, a large, glowing flame of the Star of Bethlehem is visible. To the right, two doves are perched on a wooden ledge. In the foreground, three children are kneeling in prayer. One child, wearing a purple robe, has their hands clasped in prayer. Another child, wearing a red robe, is holding a pink rose. A third child, wearing a blue robe, is also kneeling. The background shows a simple wooden structure, possibly a stable or a manger, with a wooden door and a ring handle.
